HALLOWEEN EDITION

This past weekend at the Kennebec Morgan Farm on Saturday October 28, 2017. It was our 3rd annual Halloween show and we had the biggest turnout to date. We had over 30 participants who participated in various rounds that included walk, trot, and canter all the way to jumping over jumps as high as three feet.

Besides competing in single events jumpers also competed in a team event and a costume contest jumping round.

The team that took home the gold was the Standard Bred's that included Grace Cloutier riding Flex Fuel, Meghan Martin on Lindon's Rose, and Kathleen Bailey on Gone to Carolina. Teams had to complete a jumping course fastest and with minimal faults. The two teams with the fastest times and least faults went onto the second round with a different jumping course and then the winner was chosen from those two teams.

The main event of the day was the Jumper Costume Class where the participants were required to be dressed up along with decorating their horses. The overall winner was Tracy Malloy riding Royal Flush followed by Meghan Martin, Lizzie Dutton, Lindsay Huston, Asa Woodman, and Abigale Bsullak.
