Mission Statement:

The New England Jumpers' Association is committed to providing a show circuit in which riders of all ages and abilities are able to experience quality shows, sportsmanship, horsemanship, and friendships associated with the discipline.

Real Shows, Real Experiences, Real Results.

About NEJA

Founded in 2015, NEJA started off as a just jumper association created to offer more quality shows in the state of Maine. After a year, we started offering Hunter/Jumper shows in Maine & NH, also affiliating with local associations. After almost two years we have developed new programs and will be adding hunter divisions and eventing divisions to our year-end awards and expanding into Massachusetts.

NEJA was created to enhance the equestrian experience. We are family owned and operated, we believe that quality leads to life time customers. Equestrian work hard and deserve to enjoy their show experience.

General Rules

1. Memberships:

- Membership is open to all.
- The year is defined as Jan 1st to December 31st.
- A junior rider is defined as any rider 17 yrs. or younger. A junior's age is defined as the age of the junior on Jan 1st of the membership year.
- Membership types and fees are defined as Individual 1 year ($45), 2 years ($80), and lifetime.

A 1 year or 2-year membership is defined as a junior, amateur, or professional rider. An Individual may register up to two horses per competition year, if more horses are to be registered they must fill out another membership for with an additional $10 per horse after 2 horses.

2. Members: will be for NEJA members showing in NEJA affiliated shows. All divisions/ classes listed in this document will be eligible for year-end awards. A rider must earn points in a minimum of 3 affiliated shows to be eligible for year-end awards. If a rider wishes to earn year-end points toward offered classes you must be an NEJA Member. If rider does not wish to earn points, they do not have to be an NEJA member.

- In 2019 NEJA Members not be subject to extra show fees (ex: Office Fee, Ground Fee). However, members are still subject to late fee if entries are not received on time.

For affiliated association membership & point rules, visit “Show Affiliations”.

3. Year End Awards: will be as follows: for lead-line and walk-trot, awards will be given 1st through 6th place. For all other hunter/on the flat/equitation classes awards will be given Champion and Reserve. For all jumper divisions, awards will be given 1st through 6th place. For all 2-phase/3-phase divisions, awards will be given 1st through 3rd place.

For horse and rider points to count, only the rider needs to be an NEJA Member, but the owner’s information and consent must be given with membership form.

For a leased horse, the lessee will be considered the owner for point-counting purposes. The lease must be recorded with the NEJA.

4. Show Affiliations: NEJA will abide by the laws & rules of the organization(s) affiliated with. This includes Judge, Steward, EMT, veterinarian and Farrier requirements.

MEHJA Affiliated shows, if the rider/owner wishing to earn MEHJA points they must comply with MeHJA rules (In order for the horses points to count, the owner of the horse must be a member of MeHJA in performance (hunter and pleasure) and in classes where the rider is judged (equitation), the rider must be a member of MeHJA.)

NEJA will recognize Downeast Medal Participants. Points will be based on the Downeast Medals point scoring/record keeping. DMF Classes must have a minimum of 3 riders to earn points. Class can still be ran with less than 3 riders.

New Hampshire Hunter/Jumper Association (NHHJA) affiliated shows: Points for NHHJA medal classes may be accumulated only at shows affiliated with NHHJA and in good standing. Points will be finalized two weeks. Riders that wish to earn point for NHHJA Medals must be a NHHJA Member & show proof of membership the day of event.

Maine Combined Training Association (MECTA) Affiliated shows, if the rider/owner wishing to earn MECTA points they must comply with MECTA rules and must be an MECTA Member. Rider must show proof of MECTA membership in order to enter the class.

Dressage Association: (MDA, CMDA, EMDA, WMDA) Affiliated shows, if the rider/owner wishing to earn points they must comply with affiliated association rules and must be a Member of the particular association they wish to earn points. Rider must show proof of membership in order to enter the class.

5. NEJA Affiliation: Any show in New England may affiliate with the New England Jumpers' Association. Cost to affiliate will be $35 in the State of Maine. All other bordering states will be $45. An affiliate show will receive a mailing list of all NEJA members, division specs and a rule book. Classes and divisions recognized by the NEJA will count toward year-end awards in the NEJA.

AFFILIATION RULES:

- A. Shows must apply for affiliation and submit payment by March 31st. After submission date, NEJA requires a minimum of 60 days in advance of the show date, plus $5 late charge. For last minute affiliation please email us directly.
- B. Shows must send a copy of the class list to the NEJA secretary for approval with their affiliation.
- C. Shows affiliated with the MeHJA must supply proof of insurance in the amount of $1,000,000 General Liability, which includes spectators on or about the grounds, and must name NEJA as additional insured. This proof of insurance must be received by the NEJA secretary at least 30 days prior to show.
- D. The show must also send a copy of the results to the NEJA secretary within two weeks of the completion of said show. If the show results are not received by three weeks from the completion of the show, a $25 fine will be assessed. If not received by four weeks from the completion of the show, the fine will be $50 and the hosting facility will not be allowed to affiliate any other competitions until the results are received and the fine is paid.
- E. It is required that shows hire carded judges, NEHC or USEF carded judges are recommended.
- F. NEJA will offer year-end awards in all divisions offered in rulebook. Riders must be an NEJA member to acquire points.
- G. Facility MUST have proper and safe footing for competitors. Facility must also have proper fences with safe courses. Failure to follow these guidelines will result in loss of any other affiliation(s), with no refund.
- H. Facility must have proper and safe parking for competitors.

I. Facility and staff must agree to abide by NEJA strict code of conduct. Any incidents that break the code of conduct will be subject to investigation. Failing to abide by the code of conduct could result in loss of any future or pending affiliation(s), with no refund.

6. Points: NEJA will appoint shows either single set of points or will two sets of points for double-pointed shows. However, the show will count as only one show, not as two shows, for the purpose of the minimum number of shows that must be attended for points to count toward year-ends. Shows will be noted if it is single pointed or double pointed.

NEW: After each event division results for all classes will be posted to the website event page for riders to see official placings.
